(E) Reading Comprehension:

Question 1: Read the following passage and answer the questions:

Aesop's Pet Rocky

As Rocky was crossing a bridge over the small stream near his house, he looked down and saw another pet. What was more surprising was what the other pet had in its mouth-it was a bone! Rocky's mind began to race. He rarely got one bone, and here was another for the taking. Rocky stared at the other pet, and the other pet stared right back at him. Rocky acted quickly and leapt to grab the other pet's bone, dropping the one in his mouth.

With a splash Rocky jumped into the stream. Oh no! he thought. That wasn't another pet; that was my reflection! He began to paddle as hard as he could with all four of his legs and just barely made it to the water's edge. As he climbed up on the shore, he scolded himself for not thinking. Not only had he gotten all wet, but he had lost his bone. Sad and dripping, he walked the long journey home. He hoped his master had a towel.

Circle the correct answer from the following:

1.	Where was Rocky when he saw the "other pet"?
	a) in his house	b) on a bridge over a stream	c) at the park	d) at the mall
