

Vision:

To build women leaders characterized by true faith specializing globally in the fields of education and medicine (obstetrics and gynecology), literature, journalism, and the arts.

Objectives:

- To develop personal traits and enhance the positive aspects of it.
- To develop different thinking skills and creativity in a special way.
- To develop leadership qualities in the personality of the student.
- To train on the fundamentals of scientific research gradually until it reaches the discoveries and innovations.
- To guide the students in identifying their future career.
- To merge the students' interests and the needs of society in different specialties.
- To intensify the Islamic faith and moral values.
- To develop awareness and interest of the student with local and global issues.
- To improve student's special talent through support and guidance.